DESIGN

We strive to design our diving boards to meet or exceed all NCAA, FINA and NSPI/ANSI standards—so you get the results you need for your facility. Tall, short, competition or just for fun—S.R. Smith has designed Diving Towers and Stands to meet the needs of every aquatic facility.

PRECISION

Precision comes from our attention to detail. Our Towers and Stands have details that ensure users the precision they need for outstanding, safe dives. From our unique quick, adjustable fulcrum for easy forward and backward movement to our smaller jigs for easier installations, our attention to details guarantees precise performance.

PERFORMANCE

For over 70 years, S.R. Smith has designed and manufactured Diving Towers and Stands for all types of aquatic facilities—from competition to recreational commercial pools. Our technologically advanced Towers and Stands are proven performers. When you choose S.R. Smith, you have undeniably chosen equipment that gives you outstanding value. Our high quality, performance-rich equipment is provided with the service levels you expect and deserve.
